

A photograph of a long, narrow wooden tray containing several small white flowers. The tray is positioned horizontally, and the flowers are scattered along its length. The lighting is warm and directional, creating strong highlights and deep shadows. The background is dark and textured.

The Phenomenological Search for the [Arch]tectonic

D5 talk; Bea Gallery 9 December, 2014

*nicholas baker III
architect ma bfh*